

Preparing for Change - Fair Work Australia

Presented by: James O'Neill & Associates in conjunction with,
HACSU (Health and Community Services Union) and
ASU (Australian Services Union)

This session will explore the introduction of "Fair Work Australia" which has led to the creation of a raft of new Modern Awards and National Employment Standards.

It is vital to gain an understanding of what impact these changes may have on your organisation and workers.

The session compliments and provides further detail on our recent Information Forum presented by Jobs Australia. It will cover the following:

- Brief overview of the key changes under the Fair Work Act 2009
- Impact of the Social, Community, Home Care & Disability Services Industry Award
- Overview of Agreement making under the Act
- Overview of the National Employment Standards and the impact on the new Award
- Union and employee perspectives of the Industrial Relations system changes
- ASU National Pay Equity Case
- Opportunity for Q&A throughout and following the sessions.

When: Launceston, Thursday the 10th December, 2009
Launceston Tram Shed Function Centre. Tram Room No. 28
Glenorchy, Friday the 11th December, 2009
Glenorchy Civic Centre, Glenorchy

Time: 12:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Cost: $25.00 TasCOSS Member
$30.00 Non-TasCOSS Member

Registration: Contact Dale at TasCOSS on 6231 0755
Or by email, dale@tascoss.org.au